HOTEL IL CANNETO

PORTO CERESIO

Porto Ceresio is a small municipality in the province of Varese, in the Lombardy region, located on the shores of Lake Lugano and a few kilometers from the Swiss border. The town is situated in a panoramic position between the lake and the Prealps mountains, characterized by a highly picturesque natural landscape. The name "Ceresio" derives from the Latin term Ceresium, one of the ancient names of Lake Lugano.

In the past, Porto Ceresio was an important commercial trading hub between Italy and Switzerland thanks to lake navigation and the communication routes crossing the area, while the local economy relied mainly on fishing, trade, and lake-related activities. Today, the town is known primarily as a quiet tourist resort appreciated for its scenic lakeside promenade, outdoor activities such as swimming, walking, and boat trips, and its proximity to the Swiss city of Lugano. The town center retains a typical lakeside village atmosphere, with houses overlooking the water and small squares opening onto the lake.

Thanks to the relatively mild climate and the beauty of the surrounding territory, Porto Ceresio represents an ideal destination for those seeking nature, tranquility, and panoramic landscapes. It is also located near sites of natural interest such as Monte San Giorgio, a famous paleontological site recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Have fun exploring and enjoy your stay!
